

Pilgrimage Village – A peaceful rustic village

Designed in a unique Vietnamese style, Pilgrimage Village, Hue is an environmentally friendly resort that promises all who visit a tranquil haven, where the natural environment blends harmoniously with the area's local culture.

The charm of Pilgrimage Village lies in its peaceful rustic village setting, making it an ideal resort from which to escape the hectic pace of city life. Each of the bungalows and villas is uniquely simple in Zen design and provides a most relaxing base. To complement the peaceful setting, the resort's Vedāna Spa offers an array of facial and full body treatments.

Guest can unwind further in the Slope café lounge, which provides a most intimate and sophisticated setting for cocktails. Then sample the renowned Vietnamese fusion cuisine and Hue specialties in the Junrei Restaurant – one of Central Vietnam's largest traditional houses crafted with authentic imperial columns.

Take the shuttle into Hue or a boat trip along Perfume River. After visiting the fascinating tombs of Khai Dinh, Tu Duc and Minh Mang, return to dine on exotic cuisine in the restaurant.
